

Could you explain why a plastic apron is recommended, who does this protect and how.

1. I do not understand the purpose.

2. We do not live in a one problem world and the consideration of balance between the science and logic of safety and producing loads of land fill rubbish should be paramount.

Thank you for your review of this.

Kind regards

Rosheen O'Donnell