Q9

Yes

Do you believe the proposed changes will help reduce barriers to registration for suitably trained overseas practitioners?

---

Q10

Please tell us why:

yes, but again no case workload needs to be presented and this is a concern from a safety point of view

---

Q12

Please tell us why:

people will use this pathway to obtain registration easier than having to sit exams which will evidently lower standards and when the workforce is already steadily growing in numbers we do not need overseas dentists we need to focus on training our own.

Q14

Please tell us why:

people will use this pathway to obtain registration easier than having to sit exams which will evidently lower standards and when the workforce is already steadily growing in numbers we do not need overseas dentists we need to focus on training our own. no reciprocal agreements in place either. complaints will rise as overseas dentists will not adhere to the same standards that we uphold. as someone who has been through the process of the DCNZ comparable experience pathway it is not fair or right for an overseas practitioner to come over without having to present cases and competency in their respected fields.
