Please tell us why:

Law should be same for everyone. Other overseas candidates need to take Dental Council examination from Australia or Canada which is very tough to clear. And candidates who clear this examination are excellent practitioners. Also, there are enough dentist for Newzealand population. If Newzealand have shortage of dentist then increase seats in dental colleges . If the pathway is approved in next few years the standard of Dentistry will fall across Newzealand. There will be saturation of dentistry. It's council responsibility as well to keep our country safe if there is any pressure from any ministry/ ministry.
